A look into the future. There are many exciting and interesting things to come this year including Homecoming and Spirit Week, War of The Classes, Prom & all of the fall, winter and spring sports coming up and currently in session. Most important of all Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Spring break which are all right around the corner and just in time for a much needed break from the chaotic school life. This year is the first in three years that there is not a mandatory mask mandate and we hope to stay that way for the remainder of the school year.

Arrival

Getting off the buses on September 6th, the skies were bright and so were the students. Preparing to start the school year, students were approaching the school eager to see their friends again and begin their first semester with their new classes. Coming back to school can also be frightening, with a new environment and a new routine. However, even with the long summer and late school start date, NHS students were strong and pushed through the day and week to come with ease.

1. The Theatre class plays some games and get to know everyone on the first day.

We have Spirit

Huskies For The Win

The JROTC is honored to present the colors at our home football games. All JROTC members have mentioned that they feel lucky and proud to show our flags.

The Huskies brought the spirit at the Homecoming game on September 16, 2022. After a long week of fun with decorations and dressing up at Northern High School, the pep rally was led by our cheer team to get us ready for the game and recognize fall sports teams. With beautiful weather to enjoy, many came out to the homecoming game to cheer the team to victory.We cheered for our senior band members and our Husky homecoming court winners. We asked about the game from one of our football players Austin Slaybaugh (12), "It was a very fun but intense game,the student section really got us motivated and excited."

Crowning The Court

Homecoming Queen Sophia Brown said "I was not expecting to win with my friends but it was a very exciting to celebrate with them one last time."

Go Go Huskies!!

The cheer team takes Homecoming very seriously. They would like to say "It was so much fun to have such a big crowd helping us cheer. For our seniors on the football team and our cheer team we hope we can make this the best year ever because its our last memories to make together."

How was the season? Our chat with senior Kellen Hinebaugh

With three wins under his belt, Kellen Hinebaugh (12) plays on the field with people he's known his whole life. Before a game, he hypes up his team, and everyone makes sure their gear is in top shape. But his favorite part is winning; "The thing I'll miss the most is celebrating with the team after a game," he says.

The team finished the year with a record of 5 - 6.

How was your first season? Our chat with freshman Landon Yoder

Learning the game, Landon Yoder (9) still enjoys playing. He thinks it's better than last season, and his favorite part of the season was when the team beat Southern because the team went wild. Landon also found the Southern game his favorite because "I got 15 tackles that game." Overall he's very excited to join the Varsity team, but for now, he enjoys every second.

The team finished the year with a record of 1 - 5.

Seeing The

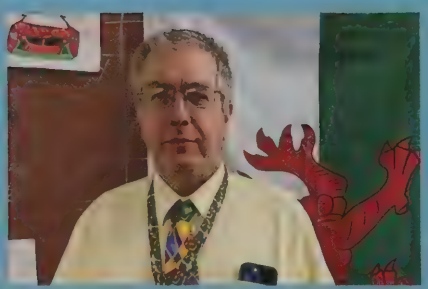
The Teachers!

Mrs. Cortez

I think one way my class is different is that I like to do silly things and activities that kids would normally do in elementary school and even though the kids sigh at the activities, they actually enjoy doing them. We do fun projects and play games so that it's not all just work. I also like to learn about my students, what they like, don't like, interests, etc. This helps me to build a good report with them. I like talking to them, asking about their day, weekend, their family, sports, etc.

Ms. Cortez, (World Language)

Making Classes More Interesting



Mr. Price (BioMed)

"I enjoy teaching science because when we're bored we just set things on fire. I also like to keep my students entertained with activities and demos."

Mr. Yoder (Psychology)

"One way I try to keep my class interesting is by relating Psychology to real life, so it's very easy to take what you learn in class and apply it to your life."

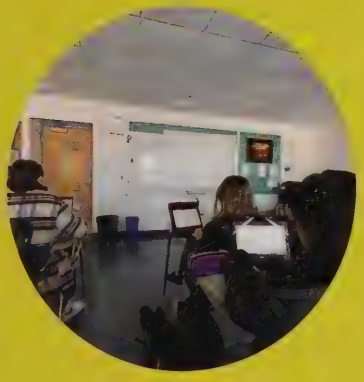
we

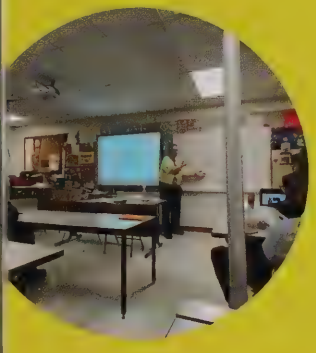
According to a study found in the U.K

a sense of humor and a personal bond help many students learn.

Divide

The disconnect between Teachers and Students





The Students!

I have the best time in classes with teachers who engage with their students as much as they can, especially ones that create personal bonds with those students. I feel that to have fun with what your learning the teacher needs to also be having fun teaching it

Savannha Garlitz (12)

Having teachers try to appeal to all ways of learning. Students learn in different ways and if you don't match with a teachers way of teaching it can be really difficult to understand the class and enjoy it. If teachers used different methods it may help with this.

Serenity Bunner (10)

Teachers could interact with us more so then it seems like they're trying and than it will make us try it's also very helpful when they make jokes with you and try to make things fun.

Jalynn Sherbin (12)

How would you make classes more fun?

"More games like Kahoot or Blookit." - Kellen Hinebaugh (12)

"I think they would be more fun if we had more options on how to do the assignments." - Kimberlee Guthrie (9)

Many students can't sit and pay attention to an hour lecture. With other activities and projects, students can learn in a way they couldn't before.

This year's War of the Classes did not disappoint! Traditionally held on the half day before Thanksgiving Break, this friendly competition between grade levels and staff allows for everyone to root for their class. This year also featured some opportunities to pie a teacher in the face!

A Shocking Start

"The Lightning Thief- A Percy Jackson Musical" was the first school performance up at Garrett Collage's PAC, also known as the Preforming Arts Center. They fought a good fight with microphones, lights, and moving a whole set to a new stage with six days to practice on it. The cast did five performances after months of practices. Amazing job cast!

Daring Drivers

Brave students take to the road!

There are over 4.4 million drivers in Maryland and each year that number rises as new drivers take to the roads. We asked students about the process.

We asked NHS students when they got their driver's license.

When we asked her why she got her license she said, "I got my license because my mom wouldn't drive me anywhere and I wanted the freedom of having a car."

Pedal To The Metal and Drive!

Seniors and Juniors had this to say about driving.

"Sometimes I like to take a drive to clear my head." - Dustin Baker (12)

"I have a big fear of the interstate and merging. I'm just scared I'll wreck or cause other drivers problems." Kaydance Beachy (11)

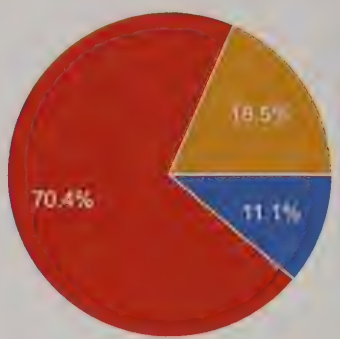
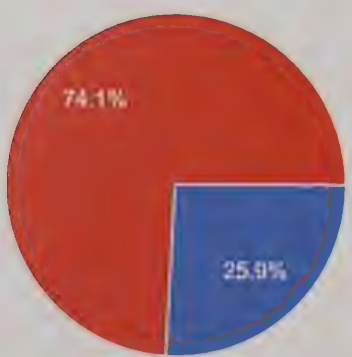
How to Harness a Healthy Mental State

We asked the student body whether they felt that our school advocates for mental heath. Out of 27 responses: 70.4% said no, 11.1% said yes and the final 18.5% said they were unsure.





We then asked if they felt the mental heath services were adequate for the county population. With 74.1% saying no and the other 25.9% saying yes, the results are pretty clear that we need to do something about this.

Mental Health days are given when a person feels depressed or if they just aren't feeling their best. They are a vital tool to help stop the stigma of mental health. Our school doesn't provide these days so we asked if the student body would need them, with a yes across the board the results are crystal clear.

How do you think we could improve mental health?

"We could make mental health assemblies or a special intervention. Another way we could spread awareness is a unit on it in health class so that people can understand ways they can help others with their issues."

Sophia Brown (12)

"Make it known that therapy is free through the school and campaign for other options. Such as: virtual or in person therapy outside of school. Posters and other help could also be spread throughout the school telling stories from real people who suffer with mental health. Places outside of school could also provide crisis centers for people who need help right away."

Serenity Bunner (10)

"Once a year, kids could learn about the benefits of talking about their problems. To spread awareness we could put things in newspapers and magazines too. Social Media could also help a lot because tons of teenagers are on apps like Instagram and Twitter."

Madison Humphrey (10)

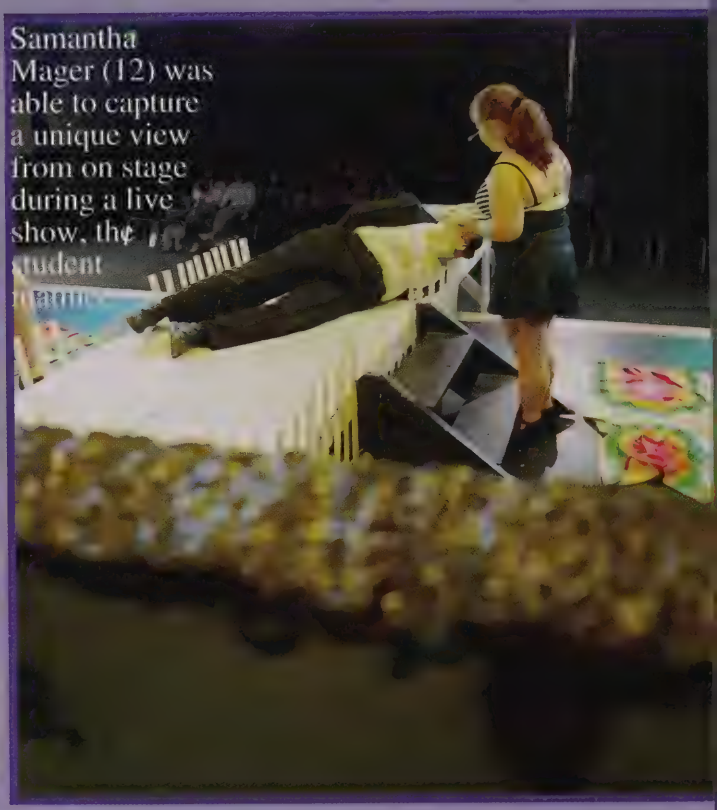
Seeing a Show through the Eyes of an Actor

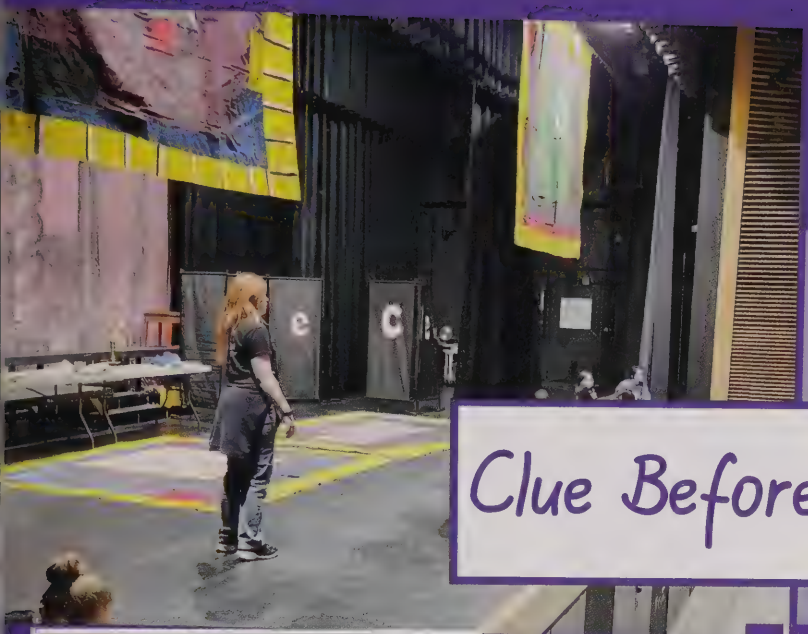
Yearbook member and actor Samantha Mager was able to capture a unique perspective on the show. From her perch in the Zoltar booth, she was both an actor and an audience member. "It was fun and very easy. It was nice to actually watch the show. I always wish I could watch and be in them. And, I mean, I got to hit people with pool noodles. That's always fun."



Samantha Mager (12) was able to capture a unique view from on stage during a live show, the student

View from the Booth

William Shakespeare, or Willy Shakes as Dr. Virts likes to call him, "can be both complex to direct and act, and is a challenge for audiences to understand. But by adding physical comedy, this show about two sets of twins had audiences roaring with laughter and begging for more!"

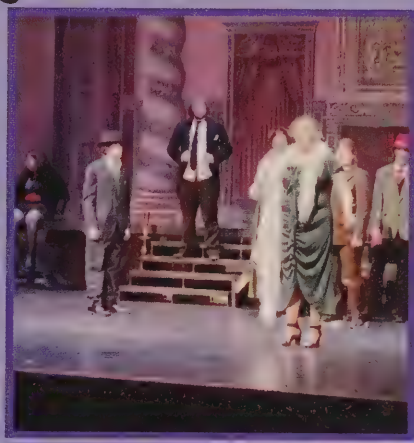


Clue Before & After

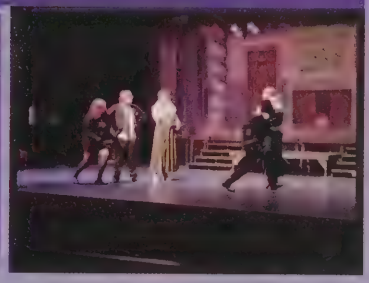
Who Done It?

Picking up the clues in Clue

After learning from their first move to the PAC, NHS Thespians utilized the fly system and had an easier transition taking their spring production of "Clue" to the PAC. "This was a fast paced show with many moving pieces and many weapons to keep track of. The cast and crew worked very well together, including jumping into roles when actors became ill last minute. I am so proud of them and this show was fun to watch every time!"- Dr. Virts



We interviewed Madison Humphrey (11) (seen here with members of the cast). How was it performing in "Clue"?
"We had fun funning around and doing the play."



Setting the Scene- Load-In

Rachel Mager (9), Savannha Garlitz (12), and Adam Frye (12) hang one of the room backdrops, painted by the cast and crew, into the fly system.

elly Frye and Samantha Dolan wait to help set up for the the play.

After a long practice, some of the cast members take a quick nap.

Girls Basketball

They gave us a great performance again this year! Basketball is a big favorite at NHS and brings many fans to The Igloo. Continuing from last year, this team worked hard to come together and improve their skills.
This year, had a solid record, winning 11 games. We have high hopes for next year's basketball team too!

Coach Miller

"Baskelball is a very difficult sport to pick up and do well. You must be physically in shape, be able to dribble well with both of your hands and shoot the ball and play defense well to be a good player. To be good at basketball takes a lot of work and dedication.
We run a couple of laps to warm the muscles, then stretch. Then we do shooting drills, dribbling drills, and defensive drills for about an hour. For the last hour of practice, we go over offensive and defensive plays and finish with scrimmaging full court.
The most important thing of basketball is Playing together as a team and being able to understand and read what your teammates are doing on the court in a fast pace game."

Boys Basketball

The momentum of the men's basketball team will not stop this year. Compared to last year, the majority of the varsity team was made up of seniors this year. They played consistently and had a good record of 12 wins. This year, not only the seniors but also many freshmen joined the team and contributed greatly to the score, showing a surprising development. What kind of game will they show us next year? Expect more.

A Word with the Bocce Coaches

Coach Umbel: I thought it went very well for my first year of Bocce. I really enjoyed being with the kids and learning how to play the game.
Coach Beachy: This year was a big success for the NHS Bocce team, NHS had a total of 11 athletes and helpers. Between our two teams, we never accomplished our goal of going to the state tournament, but we did have an overall team record of 10-7 with 1st-place finishes by both of our teams at our first Bocce meet of the year at Fort Hill High School. We also hosted two matches at NHS where students were able to watch us play. We are looking forward to next season and hopefully growing the Bocce team at NHS!

Looking To You

Our Role Models

Role Models are a big part in most peoples lives. They inspire us to not only change ourselves for the better, but to work harder toward our goals. The statistics show that most people look to their family for role models.

Who are our role models as we learn to be adults? We asked three students about their current role models.

How much does your role model impact your future decisions?

What does this person do or have that made them your Role Model?

What connects you to your Role Model?

Bart Ticona Role Model– David Goggins

"David impacts me to work harder no matter what people say. David was a Navy Seal who always works hard for his health. I feel connected to him because he always wants to help people be the best they can be." - Bart Ticona (12)

"My Mom is always kind no matter what. She always puts others before herself. She really supports me and backs me up on my beliefs. I can tell her everything, she is my best friend." - Malea Fullerton (10)

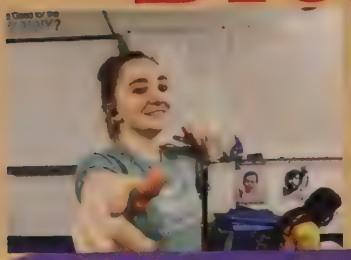
Dressing to the Code



Senior Thoughts: Chaelcee Seitzel (12): About the dress code, "I feel like it's unfair. I feel like it's very pointed at some people and other people can walk free while not having too many repercussions for it."

About uniforms, "It would suck. I'd hate it. It would take away my creativity, even though I rarely wear any clothes. I wear sweatpants and a hoodie. But still it's my choice what I wear."

About the dress code: "The DRESS CODE is a county-wide policy developed by a committee composed of a diverse group of students, parents, etc. It was revised last year or the year before. I enforce it by trying to closely adhere to the policy and provide first-time warnings to students who violate the policy. I also now keep a running list of those students because I do not usually apply consequences the first time but simply provide guidance, a copy of the policy, and the warning. Lastly, I worked in an environment that required a strict dress, hygiene and personal code with no flexibility. Failure to adhere to the policy in that environment would result in a warning and then dismissal if one continued to fail to comply. I like that..."

About uniforms: "I am 100% in favor of uniforms. While I did not attend a private school requiring such, my sister did and I like the consistency and uncomplicated approach. It allows ALL students to have the same expectations for attire and provides a clear set of guidelines that cannot really be adjusted when a uniform is expected. All that being said, I do worry about the cost of uniforms for some students, as they can be prohibitive for purchase. On that same note, it does allow for those students who might not be applying to always have the latest and greatest styles to not face ridicule about their garments." Dr Harman

Comparing Schools

Compared to other schools in our area, NHS has a very relaxed dress code. Allegheny Junior High has two pages worth of restrictions and permissible articles of clothing from types of shirts to acceptable pants, collars and sewing seams. While NHS students can't wear a hat, Allegheny doesn't allow graphic tees at all. Here at NHS we have a page worth of dress code rules, none of which exclude a certain type of sewing seam.

Cheyenne Wadding

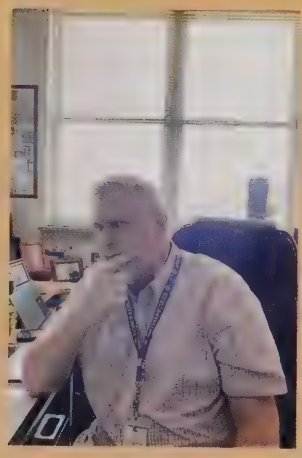
Carson Clise
(9)

Junior Thoughts: Maddison Humphrey (11). About the dress code, "Personally I think after they fixed it last year it became much more equally horrible."
About uniforms, "I don't like the idea of them because fashion is a way to express ourselves."

Complying Can be Comfy! Many students, such as senior Destanie Fazenbaker (above) and students seen below find that if they just dress comfortably they end up easily complying with dress code rules.

From Teachers



"If you wanna see me wear a uniform, you wear a uniform". He said.
He opposes the uniform system. There are two reasons.
"The first is that it is too expensive. Parents already pay high taxes, and adding more price to the already high taxes is acceptable for private schools, but not a good idea for public schools.
The second is the rule of uniform. If we force you to wear a uniform, there will surely be more rules, because if you have to go to the office if you break rules, there will be no end to it."

Nicklin

She thinks that wearing uniforms could stop students from feeling like they need to compete, but she is worried that not all students could afford them. "I have some good and some bad thoughts about it. I think school uniforms could make our students feel like they don't have to compete about how they look. I think some kids go out of their way to dress certain ways so that they can compete with each other. Some students could afford it, but I do believe that we have families who can't and to me that's a big problem. The other thing is that I think that if it's a school uniform for students that teachers should dress somewhat in that way in accordance with the uniform."

Deem

She thinks all of the students (not only private school but also public school) should wear uniforms.
She has two reasons:
"First, all social issues come in uniform, so even though you don't have an exact uniform, you should wear the same color pants, shirts, or something.
Second, if you wear a uniform, you won't have to think about clothes because everyone will wear the same outfit every day."

My name is Nuria and I'm from Spain. Right now I'm living in Oakland and I go to Southern High School.
Spain has everything you can ask for, we have one of the best vineyard fields, we have really beautiful beaches and amazing mountains and woods.
For me, the huge difference is that in Spain almost everyone lives in apartments and here everyone lives in houses.
My thoughts about United States are really good, the only thing that I don't like is the food, it's not really healthy. But, for example, I love the football games, the dances, and the cool classes you have like chefs.
I like living in Spain but I think that living here for a year is really cool.

Hi, my name is Aruzhan and I'm an exchange student from Kazakhstan. I've been here only 3 month, but I already have lots of memories with Garrett County and USA in general. Meeting new people, talking with them in different language and seeing new places makes me feel really happy.
Even though it's hard to be away from my family, the people around me make me feel at home. I'm so excited for my first celebration and it's definitely worth it to come.

Hello, my name is Julie Blumentrath and I'm an exchange student from Germany.
Germany has the largest train station in Europe, which is in Berlin.
Actually, Berlin is 9 times bigger than Paris.
There are more than 20,000 castles in Germany.
Germany also has a lot of beautiful foods, landscapes, and buildings.
It has been three months since I came to the U.S. and I'm enjoying my life.
I am very happy to have the experience that I can only have here!

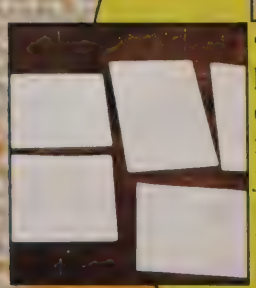
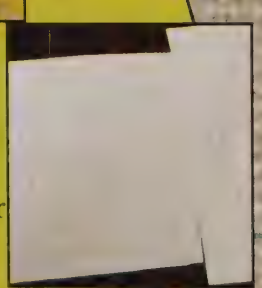
Art Through Time

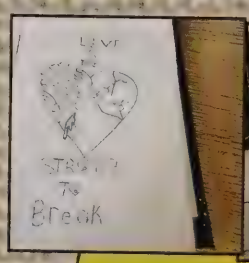
"My favorite art experience is doing the art programs over the summer at WVU. The college offers art programs, and being in a class that was primarily just kids that were really involved in art, that was really cool," says McKenna Cady (12).

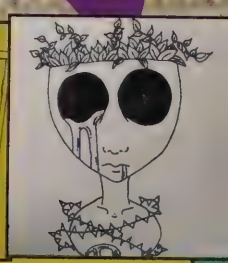
"I feel like my art has evolved quite a lot… I feel more confident in it and more confident in sharing it. Besides becoming more structurally sound and more visually appealing, it has become easier to make and rapidly produce," says Savannha Garlitz (12).





"I think art can help you in many different ways, to relieve stress or just to do something in your time," says Maria Beiler (10).





When asked how art impacts society, Mary Winebrenner (12), said "It really helped people understand that art comes in many different forms and that a lot of people do a lot of different things. And it's not like big detailed things, it's also small detailed things too."

TA POV

TA's Big leap

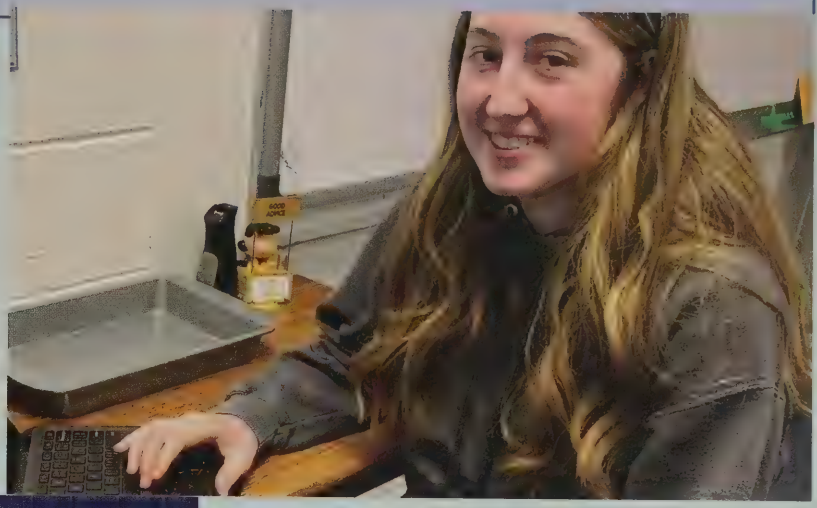
Here are some of the hard working student Teacher's Assistant at Northern Garrett High School. These students all have worked very hard to be given the opportunity to become a Teacher Assistant their senior year to help out our awesome teachers here at Northern Garrett High School.

We asked Dustin Baker (12) Why do you think you're qualified to be a TA? Dustin responded with, "I like the class and have some music experience".

We asked Piper Wilt (12) What role do you think a TA plays in the classroom? Piper responded saying, "I think they play an important role in the classroom, because not only are they helping the teacher out by making their life easier, but also being a role model for the students."

We asked, Austin Ravenscroft (12) How do you help the teacher out while being in th class? Austin responded with, "When there is a substitute I prett much take over f the class".

Here is Jacob Beemen (12) helping one of his fellow classmates Ethan Peck (12) during Mr. Sisler's class.



Here is Cristy Enlow in Mrs. Cortez's class helping with arranging Spanish assignments.

Only seniors are allowed to be TA's, here are few.

We asked Caiden Andris (12) Why do you think you're qualified to be a TA? Caiden responded with, "Well I'm nice to people and I'm helpful in some aspects."

We asked Jacob Beemen (12) Why did he chose Mr. Sisler's class to be a TA? Jacob responded, "Because I like Sisler."

Fabulously Fun Agriculture

"I joined FFA because I grew up on a farm and was very interested in animal science.
I do think my younger self would be proud. I have added a lot of lessons and activities to the program that were not available to me when I was a student."
- Becky Yost

"I wanted to learn more about Agriculture."
- Mason Keller

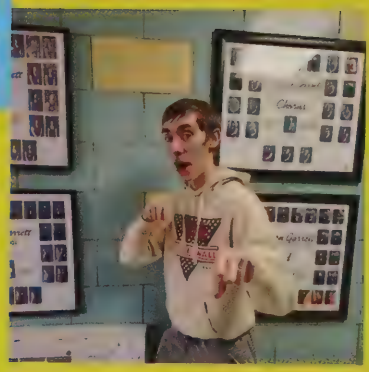
Why did you join FFA?

"One of my best days at the Garrett Country Fair, was with my Reserve Grand Champion County Bred Market Lamb, Dutton." -Amber Lowdermilk

"To learn more about agriculture and fun trips. Yup. Thanks for helping me." -Walker Savage (10)

A Note-able Year in Music

"This is my second year teaching and I love that everyday is different and I get to work with students of all grades and interests. I began teaching back in August of 2021. It felt really strange, but now it just feels like home again. I made so many great memories here as a student and it's so nice to get to watch other students make new memories everyday." - Mrs. Ware



"I was peer pressured into band by a friend, but it was a good peer pressure."

-Dustin Baker (12)

"Alto sax is my favorite instrument to play." - Mrs. Ware

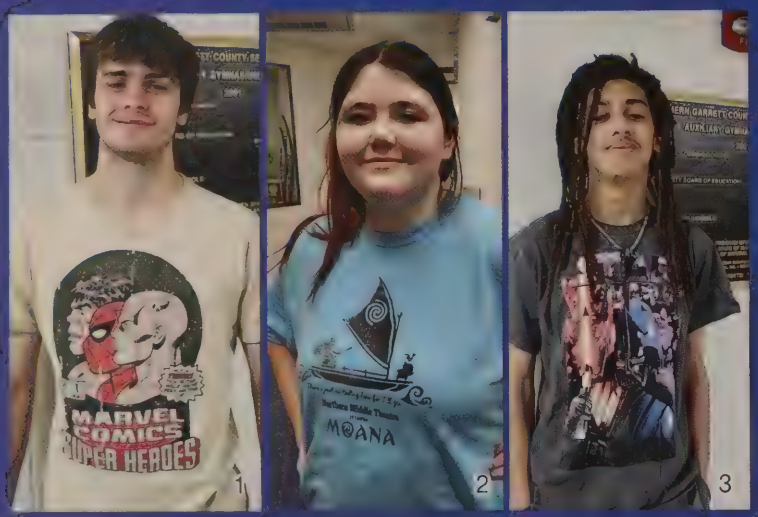
Working It Out

The Reasons People Take Gym

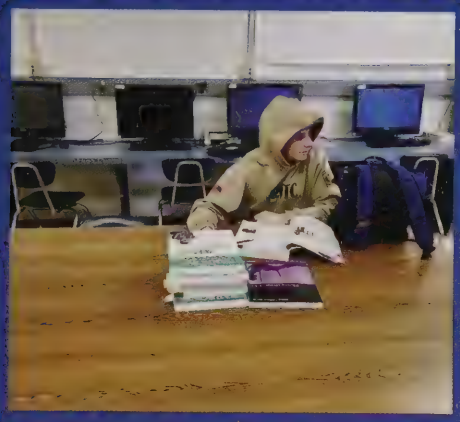
Luke Sechler (12) and DeVante Ross (12) are veteran gym students. Luke took the class every year of high school, and DeVante[3] took it at least three times. They both said that their favorite part of gym class is volleyball. Luke [1] claims to be one of the best volleyball players, "top ten in the world". However, not everyone loves gym. When asked how she felt about gym, freshmen Vada Divver [2] was not a fan. Even though she doesn't always enjoy it, she does think it is important. "I think it i good for the body and people's mental health".

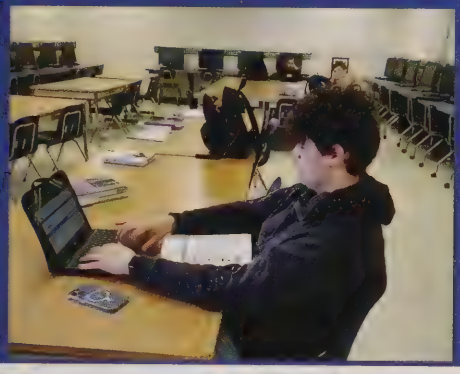


Kaitlyn and Adam use one of their classmates as a test subject to practice shaving patients legs as a part of Allied Health class.

We asked Anna Merrill what her favorite part about Allied Health was and she said " When we go to clinicals and we go to the Goodwill nursing home on Tuesdays, and the hospital on Thursdays. And we can choose what section of each that we can go to and who to shadow, it's, it's really cool. "

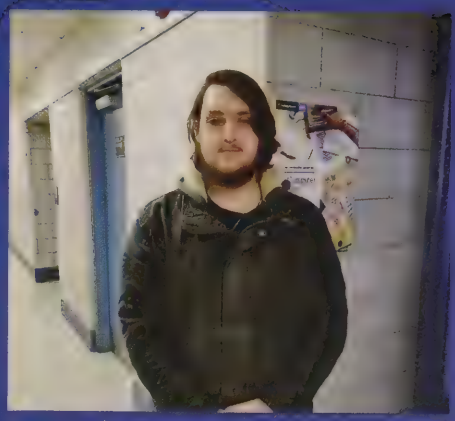
Katilyn Miller says that the most interesting part of Allied health cl is the experiences she's had durin clinicals. "I got to feed a lot of people, so that was pretty fun, an also got to listen to people's heart and lungs that had irregular heartbeats and like, they had ras lungs."

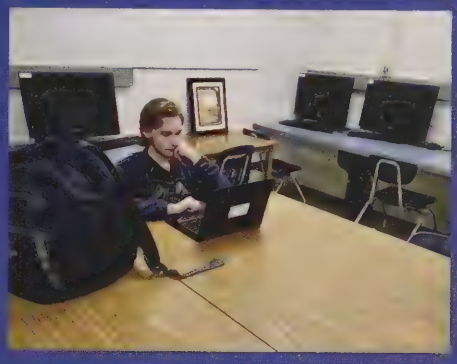


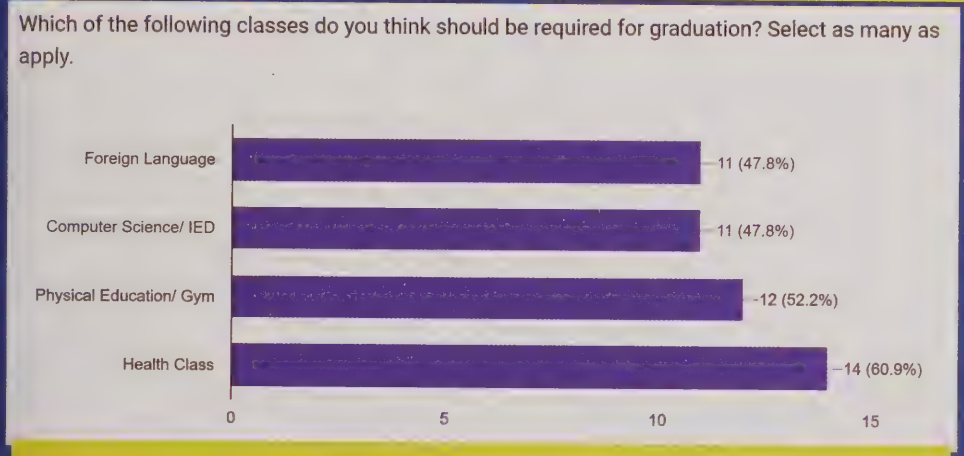


Ben Shcroyer hopes that ChatGPT and other AI will be able to take over basic programming. "I hope that in the future people won't have to take this class, so they get to maybe have a shorter year, hopefully, probably not." Like Whyatt, he finds debugging frustrating. "You either have to delete it or go through all of it just to find it." He says "usually, I just delete it and get over with it." He is, however, excited for the Photoshop unit.

On why he took the computer science pathway, Nathan Gimera says "It's a very interesting field. There's a lot of things you can do with it. It's very broad, and I'm pretty good at doing things in there."





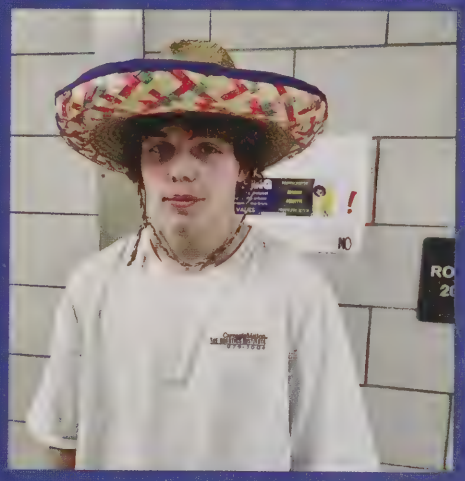


If you chose the mandatory classes, how would you change things?

"I feel like there should be alternatives to gym. I never enjoyed the daily change and I came to dread it." - Savannah Garlitz

"None of these classes seem overly unimportant. I can see the case for the removal of mandatory foreign language/IED, but both of these develop problem solving skills and cross over with other subjects." - Finnigan Roche

"I think gym should not be a requirement because it does not do anything for your manuscript and it takes up a class that you could be getting a beneficial credit for." - Abby Gharr



When asked what his favorite part of Spanish Class is, Liam Coddington replied "I think that it's like the class that we have, ourselves, we get along with Mrs. Cortez really well."

Seniors Honored

The Lady Huskies softball team swung hard and made their mark on the mound. With a hard fought record of 8-8 they ended their season with two impressive at home wins, beating Southern High 4-1 and Hancock 4-3. They ended their season in the semi-finals falling to Ft. Hill 5-9. But these ladies played hard and should be proud of their accomplishments this season. Well done Huskies!

Regional Champions

Baseball saw another successful season with the Varsity team making it to the semi-finals where they played Colonel Richardson. They battled till the end, but fell short with a final score of 4-6. A highlight of the season was their win over Southern High 9-1. This team had many accomplishments, with JV and Varsity players being recognized at their end of the year banquet, including the Varsity team as MPSSAA Regional Champions! Varsity season record was 15-4, JV record was 11-2. Way to go huskies!

run! run! run!

Both men's and women's teams continue to evolve.
Men's, women's and track teams started in March. The number of members has increased compared to last year, the number of new members has increased this year, the practice menu has evolved further, and the members are enthusiastic. At the recent competition, both the men's and women's teams achieved excellent results, and in the women's team track, they finished at the top.
We look forward to their future growth.

Tennis

Hit the ball Huskies!

What kind of development will the team have this year with half of the team being new members?

This year's tennis team consists of 9 men and 11 women. It was an unusual development in which most of them were freshmen, but they are sometimes rivals and sometimes as partners beyond the boundaries of their grades. In the match against Southern, most of the doubles and singles won the championship. Expectations are high for their growth in the future.

I am most looking forward to trying a new sport. I chose tennis because I think it is a very interesting sport and although it's a lot of different basketball I think a change could be fun .

Shelby Mark(11)

I like to practice with the team because it allows them to grow closer and get to know each other. As an athlete, sometimes I can be really hard on myself and wants to win, but no matter what, I always has fun playing and interacting with other players.

Rebekah Mast(10)

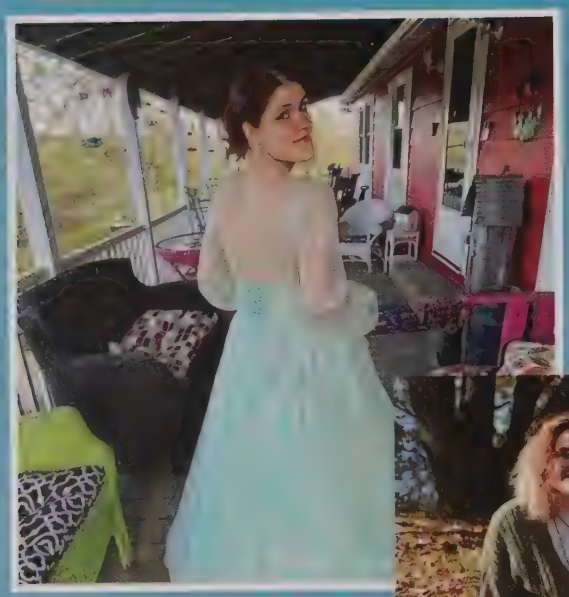
I am excited to be playing tennis as a new sport this year. I'm also excited to meet knew people and learn more teamwork skills. I'll also try my best to win every match.

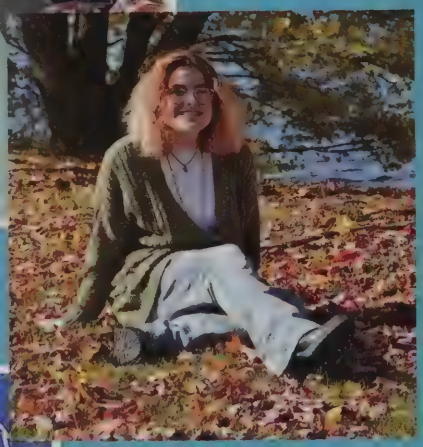
Ami Sugihara(11)

I'm so excited to play tennis this year. I used to play tennis in high school when I lived in Japan. I want to realize that how much different about tennis team between Japan and here.

Life as a Transplant

Adopting and Adapting to Garrett County as Your Home

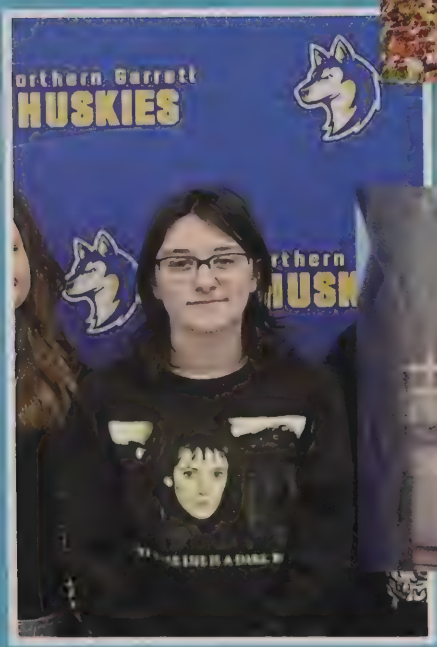




Harmoni Diederich, Senior

How did you adjust to being in another town/state/country?
It was easier for me to adjust being in a different county because I already had an understanding of the area.

What advice would you give to other people who are in the same process as you?
Just take your time and try to make the best of it.



Zach Iovacchini, Junior

How did you adjust to being in another town/state/country?
Pretty easily, my mom was born here so she already knew a few people.

If you could go back to your original home, would you? I go back every other weekend and over the summer.

we Are From...

Northern includes students from different Maryland counties and other states including West Virginia and Pennsylvania. But no matter where we are from, we call Garrett County home and stand as proud Huskies!

Kiley Rubio, Freshmen

What was the most difficult thing about changing your city/state/country?

Making new friends.

What advice would you give to other people who are in the same process as you?

Put yourself out there and make friends.

Adapting & Embracing

Making Garrett County Your Own

Garrett County is a very tight-knit community with many families tracing ancestry back several generations. Yaneiri Corado (10), a yearbook staff member originally from Honduras, asked other students at Northern what it was like to move from outside the county and make Garrett County your new home.

Yaneiri Corado, Sophomore

What has it been like to move to Garrett County?
Excellent we went very well.

What was the hardest part ?
Not know much English as it is very necessary.

What do you miss from home?
My family that is still in Honduras, my friends, the beaches and of course the food.

It's Stressful "I think there's things we could have done to run smoother and that were easier," says Class Advisor Mrs. Cortez.

It's fun, and I get to make sure that it's something I think people are going to like, hopefully," says Junior Class Officer Hailey Wildesen.

A Night In Fairy Land

The theme of this year's prom created a magical backdrop as the prom was held for the first time at Brodack's Banquet Hall near Deep Creek Lake. The weather was pleasant and the evening went off without a hitch! Students danced the night away and headed to After Prom at NHS.

1. Shining Bright A beautiful crowd dances beneath the colorful lights of the disco ball.
2. Say Cheese- Hailey Wildesen (11) and her friends pose for a selfie.
3. Throw Your Hands In The Air and feel the music, the dance floor at Prom was intense.
4. Fairy Lights created a memorable effect.
5. Balloon Toss Sarah Hamilton (9) and friends turn one of the decorations into a game as they play at keeping the balloon in the air.
6. Court Dance This year's Prom Court participated in a graceful court dance. including King Jayden Fike (12) and Queen Destanie Fazenbaker (12).

Under the Big Top

After Prom is Back

Over thirty parents, staff, and community members worked ether to pull of the first After Prom in four years. Ms. Umbel, the der of the After Prom Committee, said that the biggest challenge oaring for this year's after prom was "trying to get the kids to come k after COVID because we hadn't had one since 2019 and then VID hit us so it was trying to rebuild again." Ms. Umbel has been ing with After Prom for over twenty years. "I guess I like to see a place for the students to be. A lot of kids don't get to have that oment," she says. "I'm just hoping more kids will come next year."

Fear Factor

Chicken feet, anchovies, oysters, oh my! The participants in Fear Factor had to carry many strange things in their mouths as they raced for the hundred dollar prize. According to Savannha Garlitz, the worst thing was "the oyster because the juice went up my nose instead of in my mouth, so I had to run with oyster juice dripping down my nostrils,".

What Does it Take to Win?

Rusty Crowe(12) won $500.00, an Apple Watch and a big bag of candy. He said that he was going to save his money for a new dirt bike.

Cesar Crisostomo (12) Cleaned up, winning several prizes including cash and gift cards.

War In Ukraine

Looking back over these 9 years when the conflict first started between Russia and Ukraine, Russian troops gained control of the Ukrainian region of Crimea in 2014. Now in 2023 the war has escalated as negotiations between the United States, Russia, and European powers including France and Germany have failed to bring about a resolution. The war escalated with the attack on Kerch bridge which was blown up disrupting major transport links between mainland Russia and the annexed peninsula, striking a major blow against Russia's military effort in Ukraine.

Turkey Earthquake- Feb. 6, 2023

Turkey & Syria Earthquake

The earthquake that hit Turkey and Syria on February 6, 2023 was a 7.8 on the Richter scale and the death toll has surpassed 50,000 people including 45,968 confirmed deaths in Turkey and 7,259 in Syria. Close to 18 million people in Turkey and Syria have been impacted by the disaster, with 130,000 injured. Millions have been displaced from their homes, with over 10 million in need of urgent aid. In Syria the earthquake has enormous effects on the ongoing war making it hard to have basic necessities like shelter, food, clean water, and sanitation.

Covid Lives On

Not only is Covid-19 still affecting people, but the lockdowns we all experienced may have other health consequences as well. Because people were isolated, many young children did not come into contact with normal childhood viruses until a few years later than normal. This lack of contact means that they did not build up immunity to these common viruses, and there has been a spike in deaths related to common viruses after the lockdown ended.

War in Ukraine- Oct. 2022 Kerch Straight Bridge Explosion

Covid 19- no longer a Global Crisis as of May 2023

Climate Change

Climate activism does make a difference. A study showed that places that are estimated to have had high levels of participation on Earth Day of 1970 have had better air quality over 10-20 years later than locations that did not. Choices such as buying used or sustainable clothing, recycling, and decreasing food waste can help decrease your carbon footprint. Climate change is a serious threat. Rising temperatures are leading to more flooding, wildfires, and intense storms. People in flood prone areas such as mountain riverbeds or even Ellicott City, MD have been reported as being so worried about flash flooding that they wear their clothes to bed on rainy nights in case they need to evacuate.

The Future is So Bright...

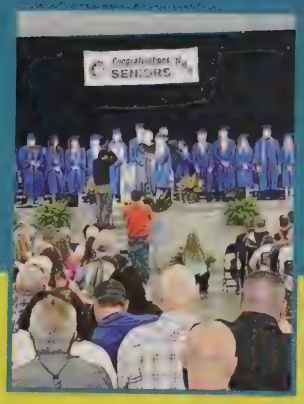
Final thoughts from some of our seniors

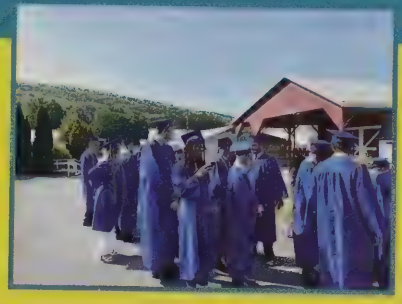
Kellen Hinebaugh is going to college next year, and looking forward to moving to Morgantown, He thinks that the most challenging part of being a senior is applying for scholarships and College. In 6 years, Kellen sees himself being a Engineer at an engineering company in the Tri-state area. His advice to incoming freshman- "Be as time efficient as possible." If Kellen could move anywhere it would be Romania because it was in Geo Guessy.

Clara Hoover will be attending college next year while remaining at home. She thinks the most challenging task of being a senior is getting all the scholarships turned in on time. Her advice to incoming Freshman is to "focus on your school work and don't worry about what people think of you because you will find different friends every year." Clara's goal is to be a nurse at a hospital near by.

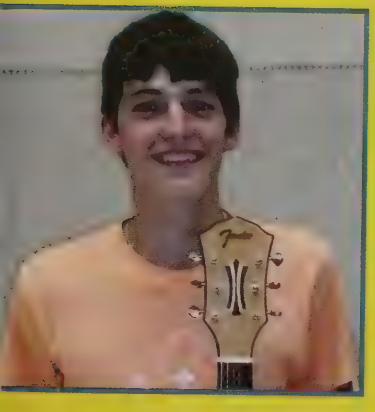
Allyssa Abner will be attending college next year while living at home with her parents. She thinks the hardest thing as a senior is getting everything together and sent out to colleges, while still being in school and living on a farm. Her advice for Freshmen is "Always challenge yourself to knew things." She hopes to be a vet tech in the future and living on her own farm and building her life more. If she could move anywhere in the world she wouldn't really want to and if she did she would move to west Virgina.

On Graduation Day all seniors entered and crossed the stage with their heads held high, ready to take on future challenges with the grit and confidence they gained in their years at Northern.





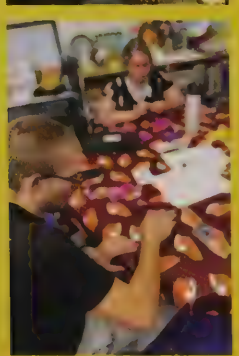
William (Liam) Dolchan will be moving to Morgantown to attend WVU for a degree in criminology as a member of the ROTC program and purse a career as a army officer. His advice to incoming Freshman is to "not take everything so seriously have a little bit of fun." In the future he sees himself serving as an army officer. If he could move anywhere he would move to Montana because he would be so off grid that the government would leave him alone and it's also beautiful there.



Caleb Zimmerman has been accepted and plans to attend Liberty University in the coming fall he will be living on campus with his brother Carl. His advice to upcoming Freshman - "Walk with the wise and become wise for a companion of fools suffers harm." ~ Proverbs 13:20

Abigail Blamble will be going to Garrett College for her two free years than she plans to transfer to W.V.U. Abby said that the most challenging part of high school was her whole junior year. In 6 years she is hoping to be out of college with a nice job and have her own place to live. If she could move anywhere she would move to the Northwest because it's pretty and peaceful.

Huskies Learn Through



We Learn Through Moving

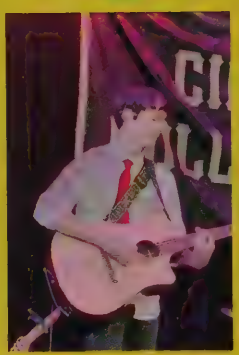
Students spend too much of their time stuck behind desks, it is important to find moments to get up and get active in class!

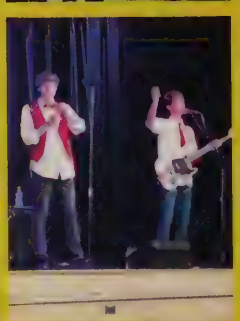
We Learn Through Experiences

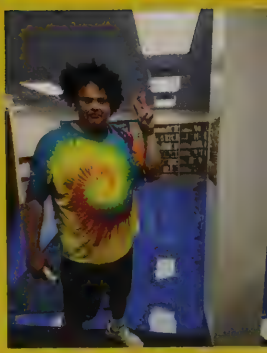
Field trips allow students to experience the world outside of Garrett County and put practical knowledge to work.

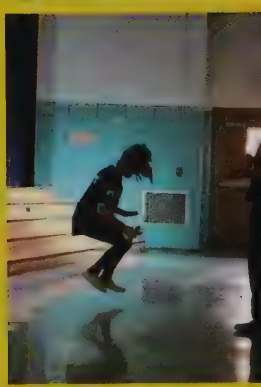
We Learn By Joining Forces

A performance by Circus Collective, including NHS & SHS musicians, showed us that when we join forces in the county we can create something amazing!









We Learn By Standing Out

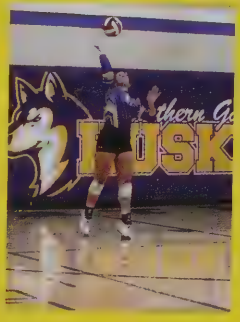
Sometimes you need to stand out and march to the beat of your own drum to find your place in the world.

We Learn Through Teamwork

Events like War of he Classes remind :hat we are always stronger when we work together.

We Learn Through Outside Interests

Some NHS students had a productive summer achieving awards in their various hobbies.

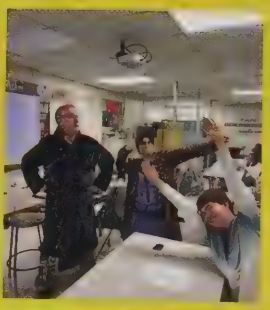


We Learn By Pushing Ourselves

Huskies push themselves hard on the field, the court and the trails.

We Learn By Trusting Others

Sometimes you have to take a chance, whether it is flying high on the cheer team or being masked by a follow classmate.



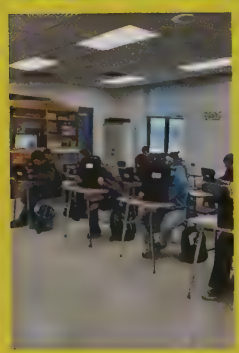
We Learn By Exploring

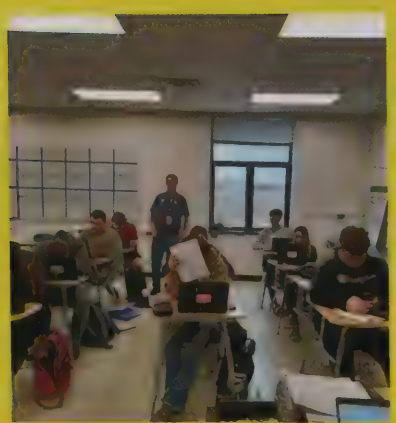
Whether it is through a microscope or exploring the world through the eyes of a character, we all have had some unique experiences this school year.

Freshmen

The Lunch Crowd

It's important to find a core group of friends to sit with at lunch to pass the time and unwind between classes.



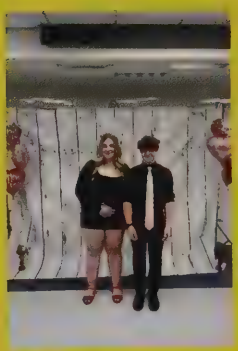


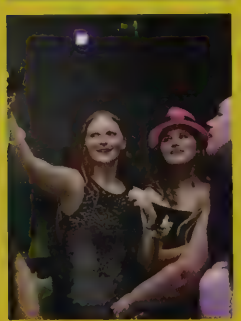
War of classes

This was the Freshmen class's first shot to participate in the War of the Classes. And they showed up strong!

Doing the Dances

Freshmen enjoyed participating in this year's dances, including Homecoming and the Valentine's Day Dance!





Becoming Model Student

From being a voluntee firefighter at Salisbury station 618 like Zoe Merrbach, winning a Play Hard Live Clean challenge like Hayden Heslop, or pushing in chairs after lunch like Brice Roach , this freshmen class knows how to set a good example.

Working Through the War Together

The members of the eshmen team worked together to make it rough their first War of the Classes.

Smiling Through It All

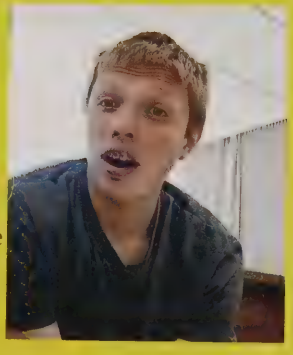
Freshmen year brings many challenges and opportunities. It's important to seize opportunities and smile when the going gets tough. As seen below Kyla Carr (9) and Thomas Hoyland (9)took the opportunity to be leaders in the Deep Creek Dunk this year, posing with Mr. Edwards.

Dress code

Freshmen were very successful in following the dress code rules while staying cozy yet fashionable.

Posing with Purpose

This year's freshmen were always game to pose for the camera when asked by our staff.



Spooky Sports

Ready to jump in to the deep end at the start of the year, these freshmen, Vada Divver, Rachel Mager and Sarah Hamilton-Rumer, participated in this year's Haunted Hayride!

Seniors

FINDING OUR WAY

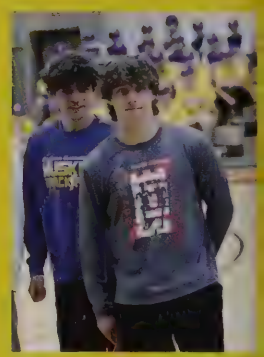
Seniors in Band are enjoying their last year of performing. Spending time together is important, as they get ready to start a new chapter of their lives now that high school is coming to a close.

NEW TAKES/ OLD TRADITIONS

As the school year started the seniors are working in Mrs. Deem's class to build shapes and count the vertices's, the edges, and find the value of them.

A FUTURE SO BRIGHT

These seniors are very eager to get their year started off right!



RISING AND SHINNING

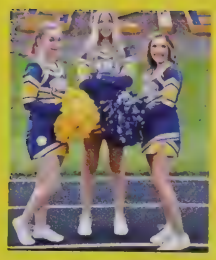
These seniors are being recognized for all their hard work. Many of them have been working on year-long projects and they are very proud of what they've been able to accomplish.

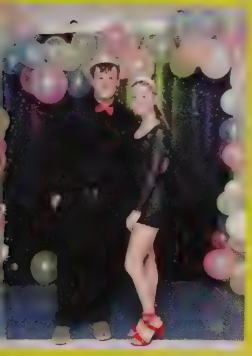
FINDING OUR WAY

As the year comes to a close, these seniors enjoy their last few moments with each other and their favorite teachers as they get ready to say goodbye.

A NEW DAY

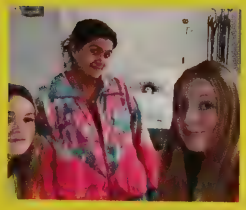
These seniors start their year and their days off full of energy and ready to tackle the day and get ready for the real world after their high school year ends.





TIME OF OUR LIVES

These seniors are busting some moves and having a great time together at the Homecoming and Valentine Day Dances.



ENDLESS MEMORIES

Seniors enjoy their last year of War Of The Classes and make some good memories that they can look back on in the future.

LOUD & PROUD

These seniors are loud and proud about their accomplishments they have made, and are excited to be graduating as a Northern Garrett Husky.

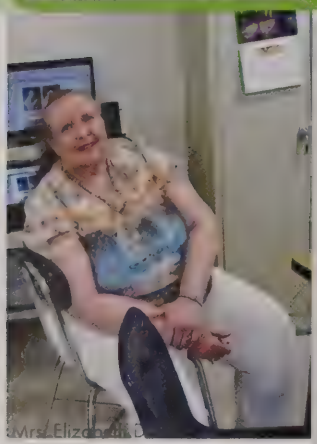
A Fond Farewell

Four NHS Icons Retire



An interview with Ms. Deem:

What year did you start teaching at NHS?
I began teaching here in September 1979.

How long have you been a teacher?
I've been teaching for 45 years. My whole teaching career has been here at NHS.

What will you miss most about teaching?
I'll definitely miss seeing my students everyday. I wouldn't have lasted for 45 years in education if it weren't for my students. They are what make this job worthwhile.

Parting Wisdom:
"I had different plans after college, but all of those doors closed. God had something different in mind; he knew I would make a great teacher."

By Elizabeth Deem

"Mrs. Deem is an awesom person and I really like he method of teaching."
- Jenna Klink (12)

"I really appreciate how Ms. Harvey breaks down math problems. The way she does that always helps me understand what I'm doing."
- Hailey Miller (11)

An interview with Ms. Harvey:

When did you start teaching at NHS?
I began teaching here in 1992.

How long have you been a teacher?
I have taught for 31 years.

Have you taught at NHS the whole time?
Yes, my first classroom was upstairs for a little while, but once the Math wing was built, I've been in the same room on the first floor ever since.

What will you miss the most about teaching?
Mostly I will miss the people at NHS. My students and my colleagues, especially those that I interacted with everyday.

Parting Wisdom:
"In a time of drastic change, it is the learners who inherit the future."

By Eric Hoffer

Thank you for your dedication to education!

When did you start teaching at NHS?
I began teaching here in 1993.

How long have you been a teacher?
I have been teaching for 30 years and all of those years I've been at NHS.

What will you miss most about teaching?
Definitely the students.

Parting Wisdom:
I have thoroughly enjoyed my time here at NHS! It has been my pleasure working with such fantastic teachers, administrators and students for the last 30 years!

"Mrs. Kirchner is a great teacher and a good friend."
- Whyatt Hull (10)

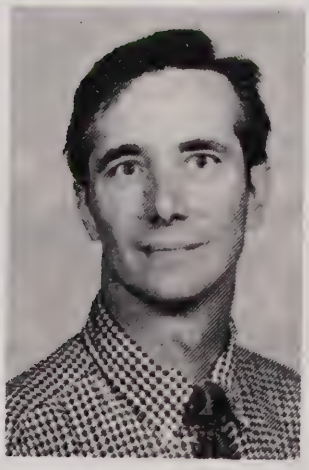
Mr. Paxton is a tremendous teacher with impeccable teaching skills and a huge heart. Over e past four years that I have taken art with Paxton, I have come to know him as a mpassionate, easy going person. I admire his work ethic, and how much he values the ccess of his students. He always makes the classroom environment welcoming to all, and akes sure each student is provided with resources needed to succeed. I have enjoyed the rts of his life that he has shared with me, such as his love for popcorn, his best friend, Mr. ew the cat, and of course, Bob Ross. I am saddened to leave Paxton behind this year, and I ll take with me all of the teachings and values he has granted me through my art classes. I n extremely grateful that I was able to bond with him so well, as he assisted me through his classes. I've come to know Paxton as one of those people you just never forget. He has anged the way I view success, and persuaded me to pursue an artistic career path. I nnot thank him enough for his kindness and support throughout my high school years, and ish him nothing but happiness and relaxation for his upcoming retirement."
McKenna Cady (12)

When did you start teaching at NHS?
I began teaching here in 2005.

How long have you been a teacher?
I have been teaching for 37 years.

Where did you teach before you came to NHS?
My first year I taught at Cheat Lake Elementary School in Morgantown, WV. Then I transfered to an elementary school in Florida and stayed there for 6 years. After that I came back to Maryland to teach for Kitzmiller and Bloomington Elementary Schools as a split position for 12 years. My last school was here at NHS and I have spent 18 years here.

Parting Wisdom:
"Believe in yourselves, I believe in you!"



LIVING IN COLOR

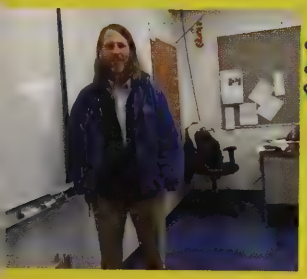
Saying Goodbye

NHS Said Goodbye to Several Staff Members This Year, As They Move On to New Positions



Mr. Willaman

Ms. Ware

Mr. Kirchner

Ms. Ray

"Over the years I have had many wonderful memories of students and staff here at NHS. I've also been privileged to have met and worked with many wonderful parents and community members. My time here will always be treasured."

"I have had 13 wonderful years at NHS and it is a very bittersweet parting. After over 30 shows, the news, the yearbook, and many other classes, I have learned a lot and made so many friendships. NHS is a special place and I will miss my students, especially my Thespians and YB kids, desperately! Be kind and continue to make magic!"

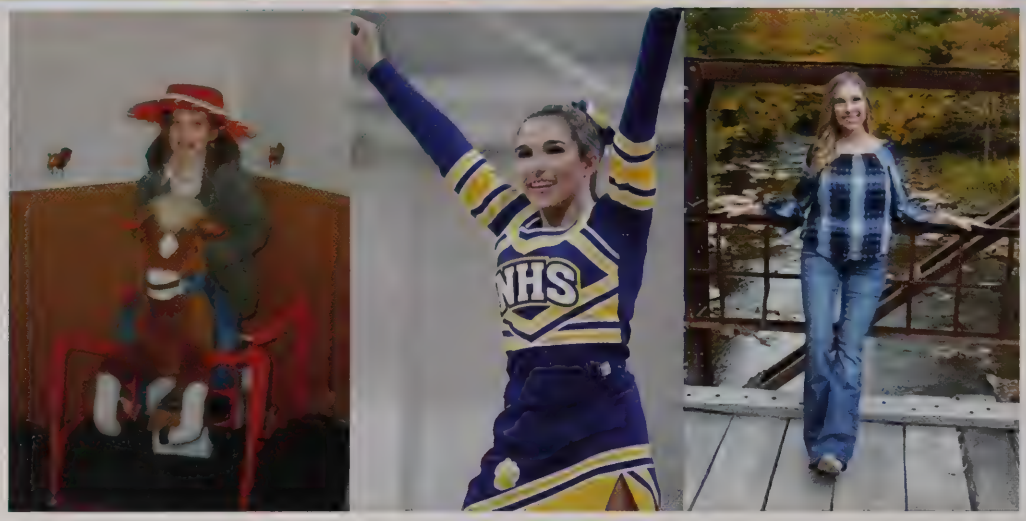
Love, Your family

Carl & Caleb,
Very handsome, intelligent, young men, talented with guitar and voice. Proud of how you have allowed God to use you. With a bright future ahead, just continue to allow God to direct your path and you will be blessed mightily.
Love, Mom & Dad

"Thank God that you have another day to work hard and another chance to succeed. We are so proud of you! Go live with your heart and trust the process!"
We love you,
Mom – Dad – & Evan

Congrats Class of 2023



Congratulations Piper Nichole!

I cannot believe we are here at the closing of your senior year and how fast it went. As I look back through these photos, at how much you've changed, I can't help but wish time would slow down.

I hope you know how proud we are of you and how blessed we are to be your parents.

Eleanor Roosevelt once said, "The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams."

Never stop reaching for the stars and no matter how challenging the journey, never give up. Rely on your faith and you'll never walk alone.

We Love You,

Mom & Dad

The Staff of NHS will miss you and hope you have a great summer Huskies!!!

Best of Luck
